

Weekend Communique

GRADE : 4

WEEK : 3rd- 7th April, 16

First and foremost I welcome each one of you to the glorious new academic session 2016-17. We're sure to make this session an eventful and fun-filled journey for all. I'm sure our students were as excited to be back to school as we were to welcome them.

What was the Kodak moment was students' excitement to enter the new wing. The smell of the freshly painted wall, the pristine clean floor and the warmth offered by our beloved teachers infused positivity and joy.

Our students who graduated into the new grades welcomed bunch of new students with open arms. The new students were assigned a buddy to help them settle better and sooner.

Our students seamlessly got involved into making a Class Treaty to understand sense of responsibility and commitment at the initial start to have a good grip over discipline and moral values.

In addition to this, the team of teachers also planned some exciting ice- breaker and getting to know activities to help them familiar with their peers faster. Along with the wonderful memories of the first day they also carried a cute bookmark as a take- away. It was indeed a memorable day!
